At Squamish, 30 minutes North of Horseshoe bay, Turn left off of the Sea-To-Sky Highway (#99) at the lights into the Industrial Park onto Industrial Way (at Tim Horton's & Wendy's which is 2 minutes north of the MacDonald's at Squamish town center);

Continue along Industrial Way to a T-junction at Queens Way, and turn right;

Follow Queens Way to Government Road, and go straight through to cross the railway tracks;

Continue along Government Road and turn right at the Squamish Estuary entrance gravel road (just after the small blue sign, if you pass a red barn on the right or the main road turns into gravel then you just missed the turn off);

Continue along the gravel road and turn left at the T-junction in front of the river then drive slowly on the dike road for about 4 km (10 minutes) to arrive at the windsurfing site.

Be Sure to bring sunscreen, a jacket for the wind and a towel to sit on.
